In extreme cases, victims and witnesses may feel intimidated or frightened of giving evidence against the perpetrators of anti-social behaviour.

We will do everything in our power to help.

- A dedicated member of our team will stay in close contact
- We can arrange for noise monitoring equipment to be used
- If appropriate we can improve security with extra locks for doors and windows through our Target Hardening Service
- We will involve the police to ensure they are aware and will respond quickly in the event of calls from the address concerned
- In the event of court proceedings, we will explain all the procedures and work closely with Victim Support Doncaster who can arrange secure waiting areas
- Sometimes getting to court can be difficult St. Leger Homes can arrange transport to court if necessary
- Your estates officer can arrange for you to meet with our legal team before court to discuss the case and reassure you
- If the victim or witness is directly threatened or faces an increased risk, St. Leger Homes will consider applying for injunctions against the individuals concerned
- If you are a victim of domestic violence St. Leger Homes can help with security and ongoing support through the Sanctuary Scheme

If you have any questions or concerns about anti-social behaviour or being at witness, please contact your local St. Leger office and ask to speak to your estates officer. You can find further details in our new leaflet below:-
