SECTION ONE

FLEXIBLE TENANCIES

This agreement refers to flexible tenancies under Section 107A of the Housing Act 1985. For the purposes of this Act a flexible tenancy is a secure tenancy. Most flexible tenancies will commence at the end of a one year trial period called an introductory tenancy unless Section 125A of the Housing Act 1996 applies (Extension of trial period by six months). We will tell you the date when it will become a flexible tenancy once the trial period has ended.

1.1 You will start your tenancy as an introductory tenant unless, immediately before the tenancy starts, you are already a secure tenant or an assured tenant of a registered social landlord.

1.2 Your introductory tenancy will last for one year, which is called the introductory period. At the end of the introductory period, your tenancy will automatically become a flexible tenancy. If you break any of the conditions in your tenancy agreement whilst in the introductory period we may apply to the County Court for an order for the possession of your property. The County Court will determine a date for when you have to leave. (There are some special circumstances set out in Section 125(5) of the Housing Act 1996 in which your introductory tenancy could come to an end before one year but you would still be a tenant of the property). If you break any of the conditions in your tenancy agreement during the introductory period we may extend the introductory period for up to 6 months, or apply to the County Court for an order for the possession of your property. In the event that your introductory period is extended, your flexible tenancy will begin after 18 months.

1.3 As an introductory tenant you do not have security of tenure (which means the court has limited grounds not to order possession). We can obtain possession of your property by giving you written notice of our intention to seek possession. The notice will set out our reasons for wanting possession of your property and it will give a date after which we may apply to court. However, you have a right to a review of the decision to get possession and if you do it will be completed before the date in the notice.

1.4 If you break any of the conditions of your introductory tenancy we may serve you with a notice to extend your introductory tenancy for an additional six months, or apply to the County Court for an order for the possession of your property. In the event that your introductory tenancy period is extended, your introductory tenancy will last for 18 months.

1.5 (a) By law, during your introductory tenancy you do not have the same rights as a secure tenant.

You cannot:

- apply for the Right to Buy or have the right to acquire your home
- apply to do a mutual exchange

- take in lodgers
- make any improvements
- claim compensation for improvements
- assign (which means to transfer) the tenancy to another person
- sublet your property
- transfer to another property

1.5 (b) You cannot, without the prior permission from St. Leger Homes of Doncaster:

- take in lodgers
- improve your property
- assign (which means to transfer) the tenancy to another person
- transfer to another council property
- exchange your home

Except in certain circumstances and with the prior permission from St. Leger Homes of Doncaster.

1.6 To carry out any of the conditions listed in section 1.5(b) you must first get our permission in writing. We may refuse permission if you do not meet certain conditions or we may include conditions in our written response. If you do any of the things mentioned in condition section 1.5(b), either without asking our permission or when we have refused permission, or if you break any conditions included as part of our permissions agreement, we may take steps to obtain possession of your property.

1.7 Only the people you told us about at the time you applied for this property can live with you while you remain an introductory tenant. Although you must have our permission to take in a lodger, you do not need our permission when someone comes to live with you if you do not intend them to live with you for more than four weeks. If you intend them to live with you for more than four weeks you must ask for our permission, which is at the landlord's discretion. If, at any time, you are not sure how long they will live with you, you should get our permission immediately.

1.8 At the end of the trial period (introductory tenancy), your tenancy will automatically become a flexible tenancy.

1.9 As a flexible tenant, you should consult CDC's tenancy strategy to understand who can succeed your tenancy if you die and on what basis. The current tenancy strategy can be found at Doncaster Tenancy Strategy.pdf

1.10 Towards the end of the fixed term of five years we will review your circumstances to see if the following household circumstances are unchanged since they were originally housed:

1.10(a) The property still matches the current housing needs of the tenant and their household (assessed against our allocations policy), or

1.10(b) A member of the household is disabled validated by means testing for disability benefits, and the property meets their specific needs, or

1.10(c) The tenant was a Care Leaver and is still receiving support from registered providers.

1.11 Examples where the property is no longer suitable could be where the property is under-occupied, or where the property has been extensively adapted for a person with a disability and that person no longer lives in the household.

1.12 If the review concludes that the property is no longer suitable for the needs of the household, we may choose to offer an alternative suitably sized property or give you 6 months` notice to end the tenancy. This notice will set out the reasons for not proposing to grant another tenancy and informing you of your right to a review of our decision and the time within which such a request should be made. A further written notice will be sent to you at least 2 months prior to the end date informing you that we require possession of the property.

SECTION TWO

THE TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS

2.1 General Obligation

You must ensure that all of the obligations described in this Tenancy Agreement are adhered to. Failure to abide by these obligations could result in St. Leger Homes of Doncaster taking the appropriate legal action against you, which could result in you losing your home.

2.2 Rent

Your rent may be increased or decreased, usually once a year and calculated in accordance with legal and/or government guidance at the relevant time.

Your rent is calculated in accordance with the Government's Social Housing Rents Scheme, and the details of how your rent is calculated will be provided to you at the commencement of the tenancy agreement and when any subsequent rent increase occurs.

If you receive additional services from CDC or from another provider, charges may be made in accordance with the policy of CDC. Such charges will be notified to you at the commencement of the service being available to you and any increase or decrease in such charges will be subject to four weeks' notice in accordance with statute. You are required to pay any such charges within the time specified.

Your Tenancy will commence at 12 noon on the agreed tenancy start date and the first period shall end at noon on the first Monday after this day. After this time, the tenancy shall be a weekly periodic tenancy with the first full weekly period beginning at 12 noon on this Monday and will thereafter end at 12 noon on each following Monday. You will be charged rent from the tenancy start date and your rent will be due each Monday following this date.

2.2(a) You must pay your rent, it must be paid on time and is due every week. The preferred method of payment is by Direct Debit.

2.2(b) If you do not pay your rent on time, St. Leger Homes of Doncaster may instruct the Council to commence legal action against you, which could result in you losing your home.

2.2(c) If you are joint tenants you are each responsible for all the rent and for any rent arrears. St. Leger Homes of Doncaster can recover all rent arrears owed for your home from any of the joint tenants. So if one joint tenant leaves, they will still be liable for the weekly rent and any arrears that may accrue even though they are not living at the property. The only exception to this is if either party is removed from the household due to a court order awarded through the family court.

2.2(d) Where your property is designated as supported housing it is a condition of occupying the property that you will pay the support service charge for the property concerned. You will be notified of this at the time you sign your Tenancy Agreement. (These charges are subject to an annual increase).

You must report any areas of mould growth at your property to SLHD. Any areas of mould growth need to be inspected by SLHD to determine the cause. If the cause is condensation as a result of poor heat and ventilation you will be responsible for the cleaning and treating the mould growth.

You must ensure that, at all times, there is adequate ventilation and heating within your home and that you follow any advice given by SLHD to prevent condensation. If condensation occurs as a result of a failure to adequately heat or ventilate your home, then you may be responsible for any repair work unless it occurs as a result of disrepair in the property.

2.9(f) You must allow access or arrange for access to be provided for the servicing of solid fuel appliances within your property on an annual basis. If you fail to have your solid fuel appliances serviced annually, we will arrange for a warrant to be served to gain access to the property. If an application to court is made for a warrant, you will be liable for any legal costs incurred.

You must allow or arrange for access to be provided for the 5-year electrical periodic test within your property. If you fail to allow access, we will arrange for an injunction to be served to gain access to the property. If an application to court is made for an injunction, you will be liable for any legal costs incurred.

2.9(g) You must not tamper or bypass any utility meters. If you do so, or allow anyone else to do so, action may be taken to end your tenancy, and you may be liable to criminal prosecution.

2.9(h) There are certain circumstances when St. Leger Homes of Doncaster has the legal right to apply for possession of your home because work needs to be done to it. They are:

- If the property needs to be empty for major building repairs, for complete redevelopment or because it has to be demolished. You will be offered a suitable alternative home for the duration of the work required. You will usually get compensation or help with moving costs (or both) depending on your circumstances. Your move could be permanent or temporary.
- If you agree to a temporary move the conditions of your current Tenancy Agreement will still apply. We have the right to take possession of your temporary home when the work on your original property is finished.

2.9(i) You must ensure that you allow access into your home on prior arranged appointments. Failure to allow access on appointments or inform the correct department that you will no longer be available could result in action being taken against you.

2.9(j) You must keep your property in a clean and tidy condition. Your household rubbish must be disposed of appropriately.

You or any member of your household must not allow an accumulation of personal property or rubbish or other items in the property that: (a) causes or is likely to cause damage or deterioration to the property; or (b) poses an environmental health risk or a health and safety risk to any person lawfully at your property or nearby properties; or (c) prevents safe access to or exit from your property.

For your safety and to comply with tenancy conditions you must not store any items in the loft area. Lofts are not designed for storage and may contain electrical or structural hazards. Any items found in lofts may be removed and you may be recharged for the cost.

APPLIES TO FLEXIBLE TENANTS ONLY (NOT INTRODUCTORY FLEXIBLE)

The Housing Act 1985 gives tenants the right to carry out approved alterations and improvements to their homes.

The Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 which outlines the right to be compensated for certain improvements at the end of a tenancy provided the improvements were started on or after 1 April 1994. Prior to this date a discretionary compensation scheme was in operation.

2.10(a) You must not make any improvement, alteration or addition to your home without prior written permission from SLHD, in accordance with the Customers Own Improvement Policy. The policy may be updated from time to time and if this happens all tenants will be notified of any changes. This Policy can be viewed on our website at www.stlegerhomes.co.uk. Alternatively, if you require the document in an alternative format, such as large print or coloured background, then please contact us.

Alterations include any change inside or outside the property within the curtilage of the property. Any unauthorised alterations will need to be reinstated at the cost of the tenant and failure to do so will be treated as a breach of tenancy conditions. If SLHD are required to reinstate unauthorised alterations, we will recharge you for the cost of the work.

You also need permission to install solar panels and EV (Electric Vehicle) charging points

2.10(b) Permission to enclose an open plan space on land owned by the Council and managed by St. Leger Homes of Doncaster will be considered. If permission is obtained the land becomes the responsibility of the tenant to maintain.

2.10(c) Permission to install green technology such as solar panels will be refused.

2.10(d) Permission to install wood burners or any other heat source that is outside the specifications of what St. Leger Homes of Doncaster would install will be refused.

2.10(e) Where SLHD have provided you with consent to carry out any alterations, improvements, or addition, we will inspect all works on completion, if the inspection identifies non-compliance with the agreement, then necessary remedial works will have to be carried out. If the tenant fails to carry out the remedial work SLHD will have the works carried out and the tenant will be charged for any costs incurred.

2.10(f) Although prior permission for CCTV or Ring Doorbells is not required, you must meet the requirements of the Data Protection Act and Human Rights Act and access must be given to SLHD to view recorded footage if requested.

You as the tenant must adhere to the General Data Protection Act Regulations in recording, viewing and storing and using footage. If you are breaching these regulations, we will ask you to remove the devices.

SLHD encourage you to contact us for advice before installing CCTV and/or Ring Doorbells to ensure the legislation is adhered to.

2.10(g) Must not run a business or trade from your home without the prior written consent from St. Leger Homes of Doncaster. Permission will not be unreasonably withheld but if the business or trade causes a nuisance, permission can be withdrawn.

2.10(h) During your tenancy, there may be situations when a variation to your tenancy is required. An example of this could be in connection with the purchase of additional land to form a garden.

2.11 Smoking

You must make sure that your home is smoke-free when employees of St. Leger Homes of Doncaster or our contractors attend your home. This is to ensure the health and safety of our staff and others. If this is not adhered to, St. Leger Homes of Doncaster may refuse to carry out any works until the home is smoke-free.

2.12 Ending Your Tenancy

2.12(a) If you want to end your tenancy then you must give SLHD a minimum of four clear weeks' written notice (a "notice to quit"). That notice to quit must expire on a Sunday. You MUST return all keys for your property by 12:00 noon on the Monday after your notice to quit expires.

A written form is available from SLHD that you can complete and return to ensure that notice is given properly. You will also be asked to provide a forwarding address.

You must return all keys to the property to SLHD by 12 noon on the day you leave, (including gas and electric meter keys where appropriate). You may hand your keys in before your notice period expires but you may be charged rent for the whole period. You agree that SLHD may accept the keys from some other person where it reasonably appears that the other person is returning the keys on your behalf. If you leave the property after giving notice and fail to return the keys by the specified time SLHD will change the locks and recharge the cost to you.

2.12(b) When you leave the property, it must be left in good condition. This includes removing all items from the property and garden, including the loft space, ensuring that the property is clean and left in good decorative order throughout. This includes any fixtures and fittings.

All lawns and hedges must be trimmed, and borders left tidy and free of litter and any waste, including any type of faeces.

The waste and recycling boxes should be left in situ and be clean and empty. If any improvement, addition, or alteration has been carried out without permission, the addition or alteration should be restored or reinstated to its original state unless advised otherwise. This includes external structures.

If you fail to restore/reinstate the condition of your property before you leave, then SLHD may carry out those works and recharge you for the cost.

2.12(c) In the event of your death and you are the sole tenant unless someone qualifies to succeed to your tenancy your tenancy will not automatically end on your death. If you have appointed an executor of your estate (or there is an administrator) then that person will need to end your tenancy on your behalf. If no such person has been appointed, then SLHD will take steps to end your tenancy. Rent continues to be payable after the tenancy ends.

2.12(d) Any structure that is left and is deemed to be unsafe will be taken down and the cost of doing so will be charged to you. Any structure that is left in a satisfactory condition will be passed on to the incoming tenant as a non-standard feature.

2.12(e) If you cease to occupy your home as your only or principal home and do not return the keys to us or let us have written notice that you are leaving, we may serve a notice to quit at the home to end your tenancy. If you do not contact us before this notice expires, we will consider that your tenancy has ended and will ask the court to grant possession of the property. St. Leger Homes of Doncaster can end your tenancy if they consider it to be abandoned as implied surrender.

2.12(f) In the event that you permanently leave the property we will remove and store any items left in the property, but not rubbish, damaged goods or items of no value. Where possible, we will serve a notice under the provisions of Section 41 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, telling you when you must collect your possessions. We will send the notice to your last known address or to any forwarding address that you have provided.

If the items are not collected, we will dispose of them and charge you for the cost of storage and disposal.

Access should also be made available when St. Leger Homes of Doncaster staff wish to show an applicant from the Housing Register around the property. Failure to provide access will result in St. Leger Homes of Doncaster instructing the Council to obtain a warrant to gain access to your home and you will incur legal costs.

2.14(a) Our staff or approved contractors working for SLHD will be required to access your home, (upon production of an official identity card). We will endeavour to ensure you are given prior notification of when access is required, and you should not unreasonably deny access. Failure to allow access will result in legal proceedings which could incur costs to you. We may also charge you for missed appointments and abortive visits.

Accessing your property, particularly for essential repairs and maintenance is paramount for your safety and those in your neighbourhood and we will always reserve the right to enforce this and gain entry where necessary.

Reasons for access include-

In an emergency, where you cannot be contacted, we may need to force entry to your home. If this occurs, we will ensure any damage to locks or doors is repaired, and we may recharge these costs to you depending on the circumstances.

2.14(b) You must allow SLHD to undertake necessary repairs, maintenance and improvements to your property to ensure properties meet the necessary regulatory standards including energy efficiency, Decent Homes Standard and Health, Safety and Compliance standards. Failure to allow work to be undertaken may result in legal enforcement action being taken against you to allow the work to be completed and you may be required to pay the costs associated with such action.

2.14(c) You must allow SLHD to reasonably fit monitoring equipment in your home to assist in diagnosing defects or plan energy efficient improvements. Failure to allow monitoring equipment to be fitted may result in legal enforcement action being taken against you to ensure equipment can be fitted and you may be required to pay the costs associated with such action
